Jenny Green is a spoiled teen "princess" and the newest junior at Montreal's Molson Academy. Jenny wants a fresh start in her new school, and she's curious to see what Montreal has to offer, most especially in the boy department. Beautiful, charming, and sharp-witted, Jenny has no trouble getting the boys to fall for her.

But when she discovers just how despicable the male gender can be -- with the lying, the cheating, and the utter disrespect -- she decides to make them pay...with their lives.

Grade 9 Upâ€”After a sophomore year in which her crush takes someone else to the prom, Jenny Green leaves her privileged, Long Island JAP lifestyle for Montreal's Molson Academy, where she's surrounded by pot-smoking hippies. Luckily, though, there are a lot of gorgeous guys whom Jenny can't wait to get to know. They must be better than the pathetic males she left behind in the States, right? Unfortunately, they turn out to be worse. The lying, cheating, deception-Jenny cannot take it anymore. She is going to make the men payâ€”with their lives. The first time is forgivableâ€”it is an accident, although the guy totally deserves it. The next several times are intentional; her victims are definitely deserving of what they get. Or are they? This book is completely twisted. Readers know that Jenny should be locked up in a rubber room, but they will find themselves laughing out loud at her crazy exploits and rooting for her as she attempts to rid the scene of immoral men. Just be careful about giving this novel to readers going through a bad breakup.â€”Robyn Zaneski, New York Public Library
